

PROJECT PROPOSAL

Date Open: 01/08/2022

last Date of Funded Project Application: 05/09/2022

Geh Research

Geh Research Centre under the Government of US and India invites applications from researchers in India/US to participate and collaborate in an ongoing R&D&I project without applying for fresh project grant in partnering countries. Researchers are still underrepresented in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) due to varied reasons. The situation has improved to a certain extent over the last few years, but an imbalance remains. Keeping in view the above scenario, this scheme intends to build scientific capacity, retain and promote women researchers in India/US by utilising complementary expertise in science, technology, innovation and research partnerships.
